Agenda 3. The matter of resignation tendered by the IQAC Coordinator, Ms Jyotika Waghela, on grounds of health condition, was deliberated upon by the house. In the given circumstances, it was unanimously decided that with the acceptance of the resignation of the aforesaid incumbent as the IQAC Coordinator, the Joint Coordinator of IQAC, Dr Anita Mishra be selected as the new IQAC Coordinator.

Further, the Principal requested the outgoing Coordinator, Ms Jyotika Waghela, who is a member of the IQAC Committee and the senior most teacher of the college, to guide the college in the capacity of "Advisor to IQAC" in the preparation of AQAR 2020-21 the NAAC SSR and other IQAC activities with her knowledge and experience.

Agenda 4 & Agenda 5. The NAAC Coordinator, Dr Pritha Goswami made a power point presentation to the house on the new format of AQAR introduced from the prevalent academic session 2020-21 by NAAC and the components of NAAC SSR.

Agenda 6. Under Miscellaneous, the Principal broached the topic of mushroom cultivation to be initiated in the college after the completion of West Bengal Assembly Elections. She also suggested the organization of webinars on cross cutting issues like Gender sensitization, Ethics or Professional Ethics, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, Intellectual Property Rights and the like by different departments of the college for the session 2020-21.

The Principal also requested the members present to share with Mr Chandan Mati and the office of the college, photographs pertaining to different departmental activities. In this aspect, Dr Jagannath Chakraborty, Governing Body Representative, RGC suggested certain techniques of categorization in organizing the photo gallery of the college website.

Dr Jagannath Chakraborty also made three important suggestions keeping in mind the forthcoming assessment and accreditation of the college by NAAC.

- To compile the records for online classes conducted by the teachers of the college from different web platforms during the lockdown under COVID-19 pandemic situation
- To prepare and keep ready a "COVID Period Perspective Plan" highlighting the role of the college in helping the learners through conducting online classes, providing e-study material, instances of waiver of tuition fees of students, etc.
- To create an Alumni Directory of the college by taking recourse to different social media platforms like Facebook, WhatsApp, etc. and also creating and hosting a google form link on the college website as "Alumni Feedback Form" to elicit responses from the alumni of the college

The house welcomed the idea of "Faculty Exchange Programme" with peer institutions or institutions of higher learning raised by Mr Ansuman Ray, SACT, Department of Microbiology, and decided to adopt the programme for the benefit of the college.

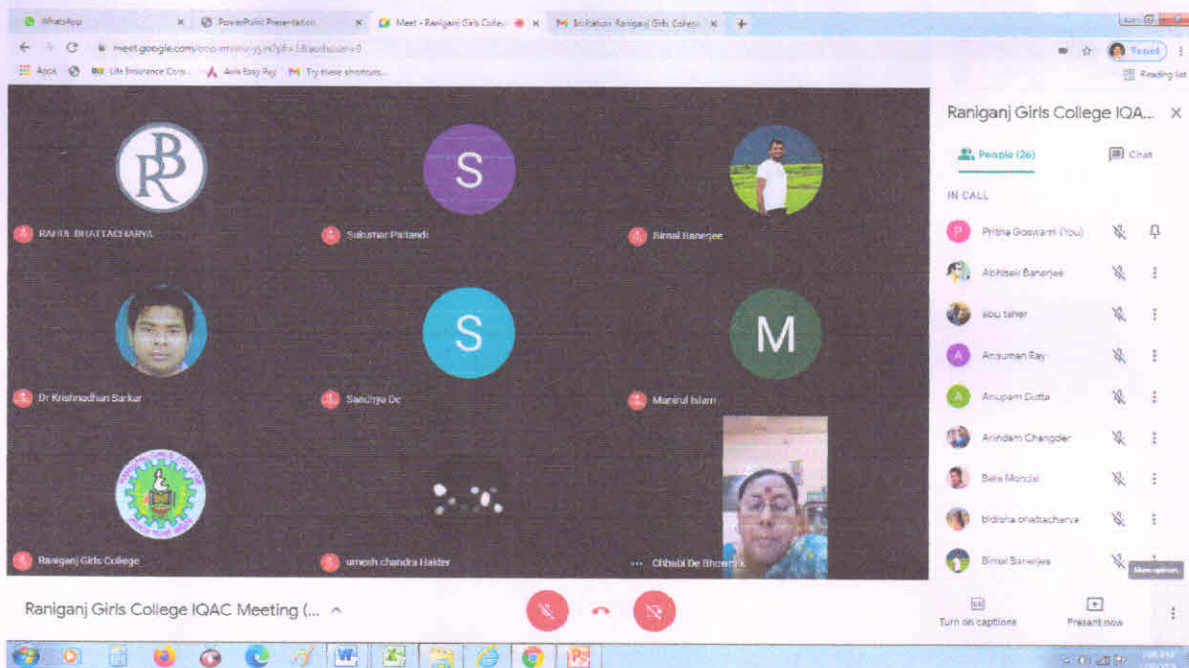

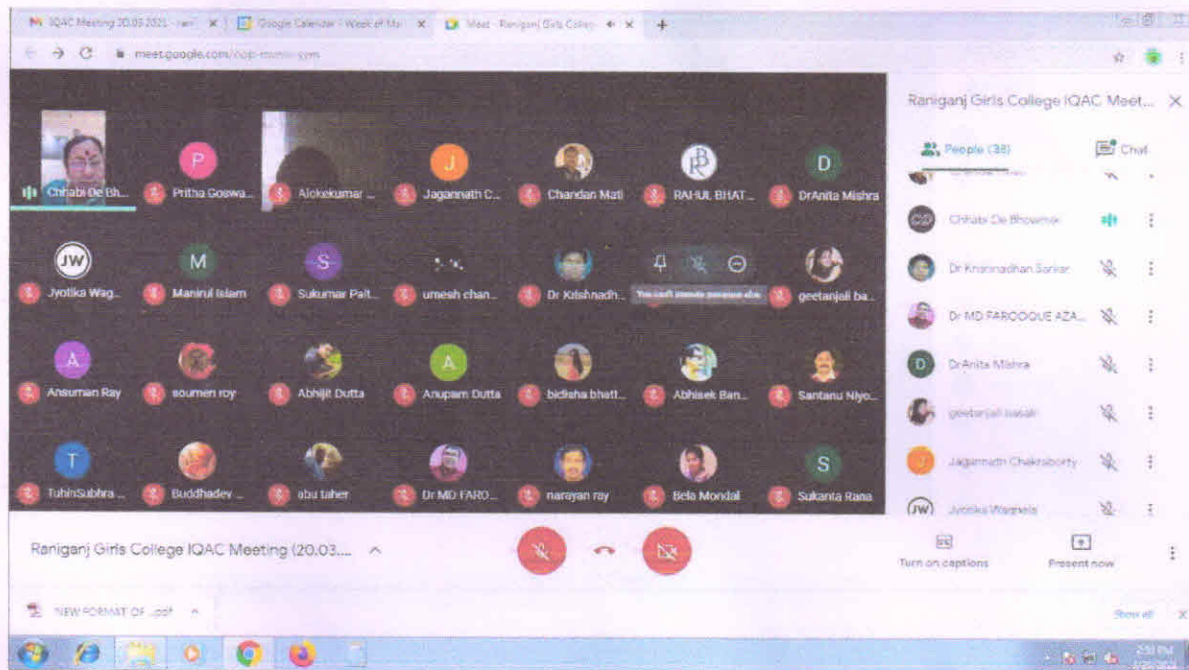

As there was no other agenda to discuss, the meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

Minutes

Agenda 1. The minutes of the last meeting were read out and confirmed unanimously without any modification.

Agenda 2 & Agenda 3. The NAAC Coordinator, Dr Pritha Goswami presented to the house in details the methodology to be followed in the preparation of the AQAR 2020-21 as well as the SSR (2016-21) under Criterion I (Curricular Aspects) and Criterion II (Teaching – Learning and Evaluation) with the aid of power point presentations.

In the doubt clearing session that followed the presentations, the Principal of the college clarified in details the issue regarding “full time teachers against sanctioned posts” (Criterion 2, Key Indicator- 2.4- Teacher Profile and Quality, Metrics No. 2.4.1) as raised by Criterion 2 committee member, Dr Krishnadhan Sarkar.

In clarification to the issue regarding the “experience of full time teachers in the same institution” (Criterion 2, Key Indicator- 2.4- Teacher Profile and Quality, Metrics No. 2.4.3), the members agreed with the Principal to provide information on the experience of the aforesaid incumbents in years, months and days. It was also decided that DrKrishnadhan Sarkar will carry out the necessary conversion of the experience of the teachers in years as required in the Data Template 2.4.3 related to AQAR and SSR provided by NAAC.

On the issue related to providing “PAN” of all full time teachers as required in the same Data Template (2.4.3), it was decided that clarification will be sought about the matter on the NAAC portal of the college.

The matter pertaining to the frequency of conducting of the exercise on Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) by the college was raised by Criterion 2 committee member, DrRituparna Ghosh. In clarification to the matter, the Principal requested the committee to repeat the exercise for the forthcoming even semesters of the current session 2020-21 and subsequently analyse and prepare a report on the same.

Related to the matter of providing student data to NAAC for SSS, the instance of the two learners (siblings) using the same mobile number and email address was brought to the notice of the house by Criterion 2 committee member, Mr Manirul Islam. The house after deliberation requested the incumbent to ask the concerned students to submit separate mobile numbers and email address to the college office as soon as possible and help in updating the college database.

4. As there was no other agenda to discuss under miscellaneous, the meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
